USA Hockey, Inc., is the National Governing Body for the sport of ice hockey in the United States. Its mission is to promote the growth of hockey in America and provide the best possible experience for all participants by encouraging, developing, advancing and administering the sport.

USA Hockey's primary emphasis is on the support and development of grassroots hockey programs. In January 2009, the organization launched the American Development Model, which - for the first time ever - provides associations nationwide with a blueprint for optimal athlete development.

While youth hockey is a main focus, USA Hockey also has vibrant junior and adult hockey programs that provide opportunities for players of all ability levels. The organization also supports a growing disabled hockey program and maintains an inline hockey program to provide structure and support for its growth across the nation.

Beyond serving those who play the game at the amateur level, USA Hockey has certification programs for coaches and officials to ensure education standards are met that coincide with the level of play. Furthermore, a large focus is put on parent education with equipment needs, rules of the game and parental roles in youth sports among common topics.

Members of the organization are entitled to many benefits, including a subscription to USA Hockey Magazine, the most widely circulated hockey publication in the world; excess accident, general liability and catastrophic insurance coverage; access to USAHockey.com; and opportunities to participate in USA Hockey National Championships, as well as player development camps.

USA Hockey is the official representative to the United States Olympic Committee and the International Ice Hockey Federation. In this role, USA Hockey is responsible for organizing and training men's and women's teams for international tournaments, including the IIHF World Championships and the Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games. Closer to home, USA Hockey works closely with the National Hockey League and the National Collegiate Athletic Association on matters of mutual interest.

USA Hockey is divided into 12 geographical districts throughout the United States. Each district has a registrar to register teams; a referee-in-chief to register officials and organize clinics; a coach-in-chief to administer education program for coaches; a risk manager to oversee liability and safety programs; and a skill development program administrator to facilitate learn-to-play programs for youth players and their parents.

THIS IS THE

United States Olympic Committee

The United States Olympic Committee is a multi-faceted organization headquartered in Colorado Springs, Colo., that provides leadership and guidance for the Olympic Movement in this country and around the world.

In 1978, the passage of the Amateur Sports Act as federal law appointed the U.S. Olympic Committee as the coordinating body for all Olympic-related athletic activity in the United States. The vision of the USOC has been to assist in finding opportunities for every American to participate in sport, regardless of gender, race, age, geography or physical ability.

The USOC is the custodian of the U.S. Olympic Movement and is the moving force of sports in the United States that are on the program of the Olympic and/or Pan American Games, or those wishing to be included. The USOC is recognized by the International Olympic Committee as the sole agency in the United States whose mission involves training, entering and underwriting the full expenses for the United States teams in the Olympic and Pan American Games.

The USOC also supports the bid of U.S. cities to host the Winter or Summer Olympic Games, or Pan American Games and, after reviewing all the candidates, votes on and may endorse one city per event as the U.S. bid city. The USOC also approves the U.S. trial sites for the Olympic and Pan American Games team selections.

THIS IS THE

International Ice Hockey Federation

The International Ice Hockey Federation, which was founded in the 1907-08 season, is the international governing body for the sport of hockey as recognized by the International Olympic Committee. Headquartered in Zurich, Switzerland, and under the direction of President Rene Fasel, the IIHF sanctions a variety of international ice and inline hockey tournaments, including the IIHF Men's World Championship, the IIHF World Women's Championship, the IIHF World Junior Championship, the IIHF Men's World Under-18 Championship, the IIHF World Women's Under-18 Championship and the IIHF InLine Hockey World Championship. The IIHF also oversees the men's and women's ice hockey tournaments at the Olympic Winter Games and sanctions numerous continental championships, including the IIHF European Championship.

From its modest beginnings in 1920, the IIHF senior-level World Championship has grown to include 16 teams and frequently attracts thousands of fans from throughout Europe and North America.

2010 OLYMPIC WINTER GAMES

Format

Where: Vancouver, British Columbia

When: February 16-28, 2010

PRELIMINARY ROUND

Twelve teams will participate in the Preliminary Round of the XXI Olympic Winter Games ice hockey tournament. The 12 teams will be divided into three groups (A, B and C) consisting of four teams each.

Group A: Canada, USA, Switzerland, Norway

Group B: Russia, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Latvia

Group C: Sweden, Finland, Belarus, Germany

Competition during the Preliminary Round will feature a round-robin tournament, with each team playing three games against teams within its group. Following the 18-game Preliminary Round, all 12 teams will be ranked together in one group (D).

QUALIFICATION ROUND

After the teams have been ranked together, the top four teams (D1, D2, D3, D4) will receive a bye to the Quarterfinal Round. The eight remaining teams will begin a single-elimination crossover format (Feb. 23) – No. 5 vs. No. 12 (winner becomes E1); No. 6 vs. No. 11 (E2); No. 7 vs. No. 10 (E3); No. 8 vs. No. 9 (E4). The winning teams will advance to the Quarterfinals while the losing teams will be ranked 9-12 according to their ranking after the Preliminary Round.

QUARTERFINAL ROUND

In the Quarterfinal Round (Feb. 24), games will be played with the following matchups:

D1 vs. E4 (winner becomes F1)

D2 vs. E3 (winner becomes F2)

D3 vs. E2 (winner becomes F3)

D4 vs. E1 (winner becomes F4)

The winning teams will advance to the Semifinal Round while the losing teams will be ranked 5-8 according to their ranking after the Preliminary Round.

SEMIFINAL ROUND

The Semifinal Round (Feb. 26) will feature F1 vs. F4 and F2 vs. F3. The two winning teams will advance to the gold-medal game and the two losing teams will play in the bronze-medal game.

MEDAL GAMES

The home teams for both the bronze-medal (Feb. 27) and gold-medal (Feb. 28) games will be the higher ranked teams as determined at the conclusion of the Preliminary Round.

THREE-POINT SYSTEM

For the 2010 Olympic Winter Games, points shall be awarded as follows:

- Three points for a regulation win.
- One point for a tie at the end of regulation.
- One additional point for overtime wins during the five-minute overtime period or to the winning team after the Game Winning Shots Procedure if still tied after the overtime period.

BRIAN

Burke

General Manager

Brian Burke was named president and general manager of the National Hockey League's Toronto Maple Leafs on Nov. 29, 2008, previously serving as the executive vice president and general manager of the NHL's Anaheim Ducks for three seasons (2005-08).

While in Anaheim, Burke led the Ducks to their first-ever Stanley Cup in 2007, the first for a team from California. Additionally, the Ducks made the Stanley Cup Playoffs in each of Burke's seasons with the organization.

Burke went to Anaheim after a six-year stint (1998-2004) as president and general manager of the Vancouver Canucks, revitalizing the team and community en route to consecutive 100+ point seasons and a Northwest Division title in 2003-04.

Under his leadership, the team increased its point total four consecutive years from 1999-2003. Over his last four seasons with the team, Burke engineered four consecutive seasons of at least 90 points. For his efforts, Burke was named by The Sporting News as NHL Executive of the Year in 2001.

Prior to joining the Canucks organization, Burke worked in the NHL front office as senior vice president and director of hockey operations from 1993-98. While at the league office, he served as the chief disciplinarian, ruling on violations for on-ice player conduct. He worked closely with Commissioner Gary Bettman on league direction, including collective bargaining matters.

With USA Hockey, Burke most recently served as the general manager of the U.S. Men's National Team at the 2009 International Ice Hockey Federation Men's World Championship in Bern and Zurich-Kloten, Switzerland, and was also the general manager for the U.S. Men's National Team at the 1993 IIHF Men's World Championship in Munich and Dortmund, Germany.

The Edina, Minn., native was honored with the Lester Patrick Award in 2008 for outstanding service to hockey in the United States.

Burke's immediate family includes his wife, Jennifer, and six children, Katie, Patrick, Brendan, Molly, Mairin and Gracie.

DAVID

Poile

Associate General Manager

David Poile, president of hockey operations and general manager of the National Hockey League's Nashville Predators, has 26 consecutive years of experience as an NHL general manager, ranking as the second-longest current streak in the league and seventh in NHL history.

Prior to his time in Nashville, Poile led the NHL's Washington Capitals to the Stanley Cup Playoffs 14 times during his 15-year tenure.

In 2005, Poile was selected as one of four NHL general managers to sit on the first NHL competition committee. In this role, he helped usher in a new era of NHL hockey, featuring on-ice innovations such as the regular-season shootout and the elimination of the red line. In 2006-07, The Sporting News recognized Poile as executive of the year.

On the international stage, Poile most recently served as associate general manager for the U.S. Men's National Team at the 2009 International Ice Hockey Federation Men's World Championship. Additionally, Poile served as general manager for both the 1998 and 1999 and U.S. Men's National Teams at the IIHF Men's World Championships.

A 2001 recipient of the Lester Patrick Award in recognition of his outstanding contributions to hockey in the United States.

Poile and his wife, Elizabeth, have two children, Lauren and Brian.

JIM

Johannson

Assistant Executive Director, Hockey Operations

Jim Johannson, assistant executive director of hockey operations for USA Hockey, is serving on the staff of his third U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team.

A two-time (1988, 1992) U.S. Olympian as a player, Johannson brings extensive experience in international ice hockey as both a player and administrator. In 2002, Johannson served as team leader for the silver medal-winning U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team at the Olympic Winter Games in Salt Lake City, Utah, and was the senior director of hockey operations for Team USA at the 2006 Olympic Winter Games in Torino, Italy.

A full-time employee of USA Hockey, Johannson joined the organization on Sept. 1, 2000, as manager of international activities and U.S. Olympic Committee relations. He was promoted to senior director of hockey operations, a newly created position, on Aug. 5, 2003. On June 25, 2007, Johannson was elevated to assistant executive director of hockey operations and is responsible for the day-to-day management and integration of all in-sport related initiatives. He handles USA Hockey representation in obtaining players and coaches for national teams in international competition. In addition, Johannson interfaces with the USOC on matter of mutual interest.

He has worked with nine U.S. National Junior Teams, including the 2007 team that earned the bronze medal at the International Ice Hockey Federation World Junior Championship. He was also the lead administrator in hosting the 2005 IIHF World Junior Championship in Grand Folks, N.D., and Thief River Falls, Minn., and served as team leader for the gold medal-winning 2004 U.S. National Junior Team.

A former U.S. National Team member, Johannson spent five years as the general manager of the Twin Cities Vulcans, a Junior A team in the United States Hockey League. Under his guidance, the Vulcans captured the 2000 USA Hockey Junior A National Championship in Green Bay, Wis.

Johannson, a native of Rochester, Minn., played nine seasons in the International Hockey League, splitting time among three teams. His most productive campaign came in 1988-89, when he tallied 75 points (35-40) in 82 games with the Salt Lake City Golden Eagles.

Prior to embarking on his professional career, Johannson played at the University of Wisconsin, where he helped the Badgers capture the 1983 NCAA Division I National Championship.

Johannson is ranked among the top 100 people of power and influence in hockey by The Hockey News.

RON

Head Coach

Ron Wilson, who will enter his second season as the head coach of the National Hockey League's Toronto Maple Leafs in 2009-10, has extensive coaching experience in the NHL and international competition. In 15 NHL seasons, he has compiled 599 wins, ranking seventh all-time in NHL history.

On the international side, Wilson has been the head coach for Team USA for some of its brightest moments, including leading Team USA to the championship at the inaugural World Cup of Hockey in 1996. Wilson also directed the U.S. Men's National Team that captured the bronze medal at the 1996 International Ice Hockey Federation Men's World Championship in Vienna, Austria. The medal was the first for the United States in an A-Pool IIHF Men's World Championship since 1962 (excluding Olympic years), when the U.S. also earned the bronze.

The 2010 Olympic Winter Games will mark the second time Wilson will lead Team USA at the Olympics, having served as head coach at the 1998 Olympic Winter Games in Nagano, Japan.

Wilson also led the U.S. Men's National Team to fourth-place finishes at the 2009 IIHF Men's World Championship in Bern and Zurich-Kloten, Switzerland, and the 1994 IIHF Men's World Championship in Bolzano, Canazei, and Milan, Italy.

He also served as head coach of Team USA at the 2004 World Cup of Hockey.

Wilson has been involved with USA Hockey since the mid-1970s, having played for the U.S. Men's National Team at the 1975, 1981, 1983 and 1987 IIHF Men's World Championships. He also captained the 1988 U.S. Select Team that captured the championship of the prestigious Spengler Cup in Davos, Switzerland.

Prior to joining the Maple Leafs, Wilson was the head coach of the NHL's San Jose Sharks for parts of five seasons. Under his direction, the Sharks were the only NHL team to have won at least one playoff series from 2004-08, reaching the Western Conference Final for the first time in 2004 and the Western Conference Semifinals in 2006-08.

Wilson also coached the Washington Capitals from 1997-2002, compiling a 192-167-51 record. His tenure was highlighted by the team's only trip to the Stanley Cup Final in 1998.

Prior to spending five seasons with the Capitals, Wilson served as the first head coach of the expansion Mighty Ducks of Anaheim in 1993, leading the team to the postseason for the first time in during 1996-97 season.

In 13 full NHL seasons as a head coach, Wilson's teams have reached the postseason eight times; won four division titles; appeared in the Stanley Cup Final once; reached 90 points seven times and 100 points four times; and reached at least 40 wins seven times and 50 wins once.

Wilson played in 117 career NHL games with the Maple Leafs and Minnesota North Stars. He recorded 26 goals and 67 assists for 93 points.

Prior to his time in the NHL, Wilson played four years (1973-77) of college hockey at Providence College. He was an All-America selection twice and a four-time All-ECAC selection. As a sophomore, he was named ECAC Player of the Year, leading the nation in 87 points (26-61) in only 26 games. A member of the Providence Athletic Hall of Fame, Wilson still holds the school records (and NCAA records for a defenseman) in career points (250), career assists (172), points in a season (87) and single-season assists (61).

Ron and his wife, Maureen, have two daughters, Lauren and Kristin.

SCOTT

Gordon Assistant Coach

Scott Gordon, who will be entering his second season as head coach of the National Hockey League's New York Islanders in 2009-10, joins the staff of a U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team for the first time.

Gordon most recently served as an assistant coach for the U.S. Men's National Team at the 2009 International Ice Hockey Federation Men's World Championship and was also a member of the 1992 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team that played at the Olympic Winter Games in Albertville, France.

In 2007-08, Gordon led the Providence Bruins of the American Hockey League to a league-best 55-18-3 mark and earned the Louis A.R. Pieri Memorial Award as AHL Coach of the Year.

After spending two full seasons (2000-02) as an assistant coach at Providence, Gordon was promoted to head coach in his third season for the final nine games of the 2002-03 regular season and playoffs. He then spent the next five seasons as the head coach of Providence, leading the team to a record of 221-141-20-27 (W-L-T-OT/SOL).

Gordon began his coaching career with the International Hockey League's Atlanta Knights from 1994-96, and then spent two seasons (1996-98) with the IHL's Quebec Rafales. When Gordon was named head coach of the Knights on Jan. 5, 1996, he became the youngest head coach in the league's 53-year history at 32 years of age.

Gordon's next move came in 1998-99, when he was named the head coach of the Roanoke Express of the East Coast Hockey League. He led the club to consecutive first-place finishes in the Northeast Division while compiling an 82-42-16 regular-season record. The 1999-2000 Express set franchise records for wins (44), points (94) and fewest goals against (181).

A native of Easton, Mass., Gordon was a goaltender for Boston College from 1982-86, posting a career mark of 64-35-3. He backstopped the Eagles to an NCAA Frozen Four appearance in 1985 and was named a Hockey East First-Team All-Star in 1986. He helped Boston College finish in first place in the ECAC East Region in 1983-84 before leading it to first-place finishes in Hockey East in 1984-85 and 1985-86.

Gordon began his professional playing career in 1986-87 when he signed with the Quebec Nordiques. He made his NHL debut in 1989-90 with Quebec and played a total of 23 career NHL games, all with the Nordiques. He also holds the distinction of being the first ECHL graduate to play in the NHL.

Gordon and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Erik and Ryan.

JOHN

Tortorella Assistant Coach

The all-time wins leader (251) by an American-born head coach in the National Hockey League, John Tortorella led the New York Rangers to the playoffs after being named head coach on Feb. 23, 2009.

Prior to working with the Rangers, Tortorella was the head coach of the Tampa Bay Lightning for parts of seven seasons (2001-04, 2005-08), leading the team to its first-ever Stanley Cup during the 2003-04 campaign. He is one of only five American-born NHL coaches to have won the Stanley Cup and was named the recipient of the Jack Adams Award, presented to the league's top coach, following the Lightning's championship season. During the 2003-04 season, the team set franchise records with 46 wins and 106 points, while winning its first-ever Eastern Conference title and second consecutive Southeast Division crown.

Tortorella joined the Lightning as an associate coach for the 2000-01 season before being elevated to head coach in January 2001.

As part of USA Hockey, Tortorella served as an assistant coach for the U.S. Men's National Team at the 2008 International Ice Hockey Federation Men's World Championship in Halifax and Quebec City, Canada, and the 2005 IIHF Men's World Championship in Vienna and Innsbruck, Austria.

He will serve as an assistant coach for the 2010 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team, his first stint on an Olympic coaching staff.

A Boston native, Tortorella began his playing career at Salem State College before transferring to the University of Maine. He spent three seasons with the Black Bears and was twice named an ECAC all-star.

After playing in Sweden, Tortorella skated in the Atlantic Coast Hockey League with Virginia, Hampton Roads and Erie. He spent two seasons as the general manager and head coach of the Virginia Lancers (ACHL) from 1986-88, where he garnered coach of the year honors during both campaigns and led his 1986-87 team to the league championship.

In 1988-89, Tortorella was hired as an assistant coach with the New Haven Nighthawks of the American Hockey League. He became an assistant coach with the Buffalo Sabres the following year and remained with the Sabres organization through the 1996-97 season. The Sabres named him head coach of their AHL affiliate, the Rochester Americans, prior to the 1995-96 campaign. His Rochester team won the Calder Cup in 1996 and followed that up with the best record in the AHL's North Division during the 1996-97 regular season.

Tortorella returned to the NHL in 1997 as an assistant with the Phoenix Coyotes, where he spent two seasons before joining the New York Rangers for 1999-2000. He served as the Rangers' interim head coach for the final four games of the season.

Tortorella and his wife, Jennifer, have two children, Brittany and Dominick.

Fischer
Communications

Dave Fischer, who is in his fifth year as director of communications for USA Hockey, will be serving on the staff of a U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team for the second time. He is responsible on a day-to-day basis of overseeing USA Hockey's overall communications effort, including publications, and media and public relations.

In his role at USA Hockey, Fischer has held the lead communications role for multiple U.S. squads, including the 2006 U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team.

He led USA Hockey's efforts in establishing and executing Hockey Weekend Across America and also guides activities – including the selection process and induction event – associated with the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame.

Fischer spent 17 years at Michigan Tech University (1987-2004), where he served as assistant athletic director for communications and marketing. During his tenure, more than 40 MTU athletic publications earned citations of excellence from the College Sports Information Directors Association of America and revenue from advertising and sponsorship more than quadrupled.

While at Michigan Tech, Fischer simultaneously spent five years (1989-94) as the information director for the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

He served on the CoSIDA Board of Directors from 1999-2002 and has been a member of the organization since 1987. In addition, he is a former member of the Hancock Rotary and the Knights of Columbus.

Fischer has served on the NCAA Men's Frozen Four staff since 1989 and was a media liaison at the 1993 U.S. Olympic Festival in San Antonio, Texas.

Fischer and his wife, Angie, have one daughter, Jennifer.

GERRY

Helper
Communications

Gerry Helper, who joins the staff of a U.S. Olympic Men's Ice Hockey Team for the first time, is the senior vice president of communications and development for the National Hockey League's Nashville Predators. A member of the Predators' staff since October 1997, Helper oversees the club's media and public relations efforts, publications, Web site, amateur hockey efforts and community relations initiatives. He serves as president of the Nashville Predators Foundation, which has awarded $2 million in grants to local charitable organizations. He also serves on the NHL's Communications Advisory Board and was the organizations point person with the NHL for the 2003 NHL Entry Draft in Nashville.

Prior to joining the Thrashers, Helper was the vice president of communications for the Tampa Bay Lightning from 1991-97, assisting in the development of Tampa Bay's successful 1999 NHL All-Star Weekend bid. He also spent time as the NHL's director of information (1987-89) and director of public relations (1989-91) after beginning his career with the Buffalo Sabres from 1979-86.

Helper and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Renee and Abigail.

RON

DeGregorio

President

A lifetime and career spent dedicated to advancing the sport of hockey in America culminated on June 14, 2003, with Ron DeGregorio's election as just the fourth president in the history of USA Hockey.

DeGregorio has been involved in the sport for more than 40 years as a player, coach, administrator and team owner. His first appointment with USA Hockey came in 1973 when he was named registrar for the New England District. DeGregorio was first elected to the USA Hockey Board of Directors in 1975 and was the organization's first vice president of youth hockey. In the 1980s, he served as treasurer of USA Hockey. In 1995, he was elected as a vice president and the international council chairperson, positions he held until being named president.

He has represented the United States at countless events during his tenure with USA Hockey. He served as team leader of Team East at the 1979 United States Olympic Festival, from which the 1980 "Miracle On Ice" U.S. Olympic Ice Hockey Team was chosen and also for the 1994 U.S. Olympic Ice Hockey Team. DeGregorio has represented the United States at the 1998, 2002 and 2006 Olympic Winter Games and at numerous International Ice Hockey Federation Men's, Women's and Junior World Championships.

Honored with the National Hockey League's Lester Patrick Award in 2002 for outstanding service to ice hockey in the United States, DeGregorio is president of the PenFacs Group, an investment and insurance firm specializing in the design, administration and funding of executive benefit plans.

He resides in Salem, N.H., with his wife, Susan and has four grown children, Eric, Mark, Kim and Kara.

DAVE

Ogrean

Executive Director

Dave Ogrian, one of the most respected leaders in amateur sports, returned to USA Hockey as executive director on Aug. 1, 2005. He previously held the position from 1993-99 and began his career in the sports industry with the organization (then the Amateur Hockey Association of the United States) as its director of public relations in 1978.

Under his leadership since returning to the organization, USA Hockey created a new department for membership development; began an annual nationwide celebration called Hockey Weekend Across America; hired the first-ever Chief Development Officer for the USA Hockey Foundation; executed a successful bid for the United States to host three World Championships; and led efforts that resulted in USA Hockey gaining responsibility for the selection process and induction event associated with the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame.

Among his many accomplishments during his first term as executive director, Ogrian oversaw a significant increase in membership and revenue, and the construction of the current national headquarters; helped create the USA Hockey InLine program and the National Team Development Program; was a driving force in establishing the Patty Kazmaier Memorial Award, presented annually to the top player in women's college ice hockey; and developed the concept of STAR (Serving the American Rinks) with U.S. Figure Skating.

Before returning to Colorado Springs, Ogrian served as executive director of USA Football from 2002-2005. He was recruited by the National Football League and NFL Players' Association to build a new, independent, non-profit organization to support and promote the sport of amateur football at all levels.

Prior to joining USA Football, Ogrian served as president and CEO of the Colorado Springs Sports Corporation where he led the development and creation of the Colorado Springs Sports Hall of Fame and the Rocky Mountain State Games.

From 1999-2000, Ogrian worked for the United States Olympic Committee as deputy executive director of marketing. While there, he led the USOC team that, together with the Salt Lake organizing committee, generated almost $200 million.

Previously, Ogrian served the USOC from 1990-93 as director of broadcasting. He was responsible for creating the initial broadcast division and generated over $12 million in revenue as well as unprecedented exposure for the national governing bodies of Olympic sports.

From 1980-88, Ogrian worked at ESPN in corporate communications and programming.

Following a successful eight years at ESPN, Ogrian joined the College Football Association as assistant executive director for television. During his two-year tenure, he worked with CBS Sports on remote production, with CBS and ESPN on game scheduling and selection and helped launch the syndicated series, "This Week in College Football."

Ogrian received his Bachelor of Arts degree in English from the University of Connecticut (1974) and his master's degree in film from Boston University (1978).

Listed among The Sporting News' Top 100 Most Powerful People in Sports from 1993-99, Ogrian is currently among The Hockey News' Top 50 People of Power and Influence. He is a member of the nominating committee for the U.S. Olympic Hall of Fame.

He and his wife, Maryellen, have three grown children, Matt, Tracy and Dana.

TONY

Rossi

Vice President, International Council Chairman

Outside of a highly successful business career, Tony Rossi has generously donated significant time, resources and expertise to USA Hockey for more than 30 years at the grassroots and executive leadership levels.

After beginning his volunteer career with the National Governing Body in the mid-1970s, Rossi was elected to the USA Hockey Board of Directors in 1983 and served as a director from the Central District until 1988. In 1989, he was elected to the USA Hockey Executive Committee, serving as secretary from 1989-95. In 1995, Rossi transitioned to the role of USA Hockey treasurer, a position he held until June 2003.

In his role as both secretary and treasurer, Rossi helped guide the formation and growth of The USA Hockey Foundation, a charitable and educational non-profit corporation that provides long-range financial support for USA Hockey and promotes the growth of hockey in the United States.

In June of 2003, Rossi was elected to his current post as USA Hockey vice president and international council chair. In his role, Rossi works closely with the organization's National and Olympic Team programs, as well as the International Ice Hockey Federation during a host of global competitions held throughout the year. He was elected to the IIHF Council in May of 2008.

Rossi also serves as president for RMK Management Corporation and Moran & Company.

He resides in Chicago with his wife, Marie, and has four children, Elena, Deanna, Michael, and Tony, Jr.

WALTER L.

Bush, Jr.

Chairman of the Board

One of the most recognized and respected leaders in hockey, Walter L. Bush, Jr., is the chairman of the board for USA Hockey, a position he has held since June 2003.

Bush, who served as a member of the organization's Board of Directors from 1959-2003, became president of USA Hockey in June 1986, following Wm. Thayer Tutt and Tom Lockhart. He served in the capacity for 17 years before taking his current position as chairman of the board. In recognition of his 45th year of service to USA Hockey, the organization dedicated its national headquarters as The Walter L. Bush, Jr. Center in June 1999.

Bush retired as a member of the International Ice Hockey Federation Council in May 2008 after a 23-year stint, the last 14 years as a vice president of the organization. He served on numerous committees within the IIHF, including as chairman of the IIHF Women's Ice Hockey Committee, the IIHF InLine Hockey Committee and the IIHF Hall of Fame Selection Committee.

Bush is a member of the Board of Directors of the USOC and is secretary of the U.S. Olympic Foundation. During the 2002 Olympic Winter Games, Bush received the Olympic Order from the International Olympic Committee, the highest honor in the Olympic movement.

Bush was elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2000. He received the NHL's Lester Patrick Award in 1973 in recognition of his outstanding service to ice hockey in the United States. He was enshrined in the United States Hockey Hall of Fame in 1980, and in 1989, was elected to the Minnesota Sports Hall of Fame. He currently serves as a governor and vice-chairman for the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto.

Bush resides in Naples, Fla., with his wife, Sis. He has a daughter, Anne Hanson, and two sons, Walter III and Steven.
